Re: Selvam v. Experian Information Solutions, Inc.,
No. 12-CV-1828 (DLI)(JO) (E.D.N.Y.)

Dear Chief Judge Irizarry:

We represent Defendant Experian Information Solutions, Inc. (“Experian”) and write regarding the upcoming September 4, 2019 pretrial conference. As noted in the proposed joint pretrial order (ECF No. 134), Experian will be represented at trial by Richard Grabowski, Andrew Kleinfeld and myself. I plan to travel from California to participate in the pretrial conference on behalf of Experian, and will be joined by Mr. Kleinfeld. Mr. Grabowski, like me, is based in California. Recognizing that Your Honor’s Individual Rules require trial counsel to attend the pretrial conference, we respectfully request that Mr. Grabowski be excused from the conference so that Experian may avoid the costs and burdens associated with two attorneys traveling cross-country. We thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ John A. Vogt
